

GEAR SAYS STEAK

WAS ALL RIGHT

"My only objection to the Advertiser's article yesterday," said Judge Gear, "is its reflection on my cooking. It may keep me from getting another place. Bear in mind that I did not spoil that steak. There was no a la buggy top about it. Delmonico never served a better steak than that was. What I wanted was to prove that plenty of butter in the cooking makes a steak what it ought to be. At the Union Grill price for porterhouse a pound of the best butter is no more than ought to be used. George knows it now and I hope all his customers will demand 'buttered porterhouse a la Gear.' Naturally, being an a la Gear steak there will be plenty of it.

"All I ask of the Advertiser is a fair show for employment. I am not a member of the Cook's Union and shan't go on any strike. At the same time organized labor, especially the Butchers' and Butcher-Makers' Unions, are in favor of me. Restaurants, grills, hotels, etc., are invited to examine my line of broiled steaks at any time."

ARTILLERY BOYS

GIVE BIG DANCE

The Camp McKinley Social Club gave the third of their monthly dances last night at Waikiki. About sixty guests were present. The lanai at the military post was very attractively decorated, bunting being carried all around the interior just below the ceiling. Strings of Oriental lanterns and large lamps shed a soft light in the interior.

Numbers of young ladies were present all in light evening gowns. Music was furnished by the Kawaihau glee club which is the best the town affords. Guests were met at the Kapiolani park entrance by army ambulances and carried directly to the pavilion. During the evening light refreshments were served. The boys of the camp appeared in shirt waists.

Among those present for a short time were Lieut. Col. McLellan, commander of Camp McKinley, Captain Nichols and Dr. and Mrs. Baker. Frank Ebbrell was floor manager.

The officers of the club are: Phillip E. Kiamer, president; Wm. R. Schwartz, vice-president; Ollie M. Powell, secretary; Earl Rogers, assistant secretary; Fred J. Harbry, treasurer; Andrew Love, assistant treasurer.

Important to Taxpayers.

Notice to taxpayers are issued today by Jas. L. Holt, assessor of the first division, Island of Oahu, notifying them that the property and income taxes for 1904 are now due and payable, and that in both cases if not paid by November 15 the taxes will be delinquent. The delinquent list for each species of tax will be published after December 1, 1904.

The death of Remus: Romulus had just founded Rome. "Pretty good job, eh?" he modestly suggested. "Bah," sneered Remus. "If you wanted a first-class town you should have founded Oyster Bay or Esopus." So Romulus had to kill him.—Ex.

The regular rehearsals of the orchestra will be held as usual on Thursday evening. The next Sunday concert will be given in September 11 and will be for members and lady friends only.

Jones' Letter Discussed.

The P. C. Jones letter was the talk of the town yesterday. Everywhere on the streets and trolley cars people discussed it and the common opinion was that its statements were unanswerable. Minor exceptions were taken to the letter here and there but the main argument seemed to have spread conviction very widely among the Doubting Thomases who had confounded the effects of inflation with those of annexation.

No More Forecasts.

There will be no more weather forecasts for some weeks or months. The Territorial Weather Bureau conducted by Mr. Lydecker went out of business last night and its successor, the Federal Weather Bureau, conducted by Ashley, will not make weather prophecies for the present. People who have goosebumps and corns will have to depend on them.

Engineers and Stokers.

According to a telephone message received by the Advertiser last night the Railroad baseball team defeated the steamer "Hawaiian" team in a game yesterday afternoon by a score of eighty-two to one. It was claimed that these eighty-two runs were made during only sixty minutes' play. Doyle was umpire.

Eyes Examined

There is no calling where accuracy and skill are more in demand than that of the optician. One familiar with the construction of the eye knows that there are many eye-defects which can not be accurately estimated or corrected by the use of test letters and cards alone.

For this reason we use, in our eye examinations, the several different methods that long experience has taught us bring best results.
